

Minister for Music and Worship – Candidate Information

Recommendations and resumes may be submitted by e-mail to employment@tabernacle.org

Statement of Purpose

Tabernacle Baptist Church in Carrollton, Georgia, is seeking a full-time Minister for Music and Worship who can develop and lead a vibrant music ministry that deepens the spiritual life of congregation through meaningful worship expressions.

Candidate Profile

Tabernacle Baptist Church is seeking a minister for music and worship who loves the Lord, is confident in his call to ministry, and passionate about leading a local congregation in music and worship. We are seeking someone who has committed themselves through study, education, experience, and opportunity to discover their talents, explore their gifts, and refine their ministry through successful service in a like-minded Baptist Church. We pray for a minister who has a humble spirit, a servant heart, and thrives in an environment of unity, collaboration, and service alongside fellow staff and laity. At the same time, we seek a minister who appreciates and expects quality and excellence from himself and others and pursues opportunities for professional development. We seek a minister who knows music, loves to teach music, loves to lead music, and is comfortable and proficient conducting talented musicians and orchestra members. We desire a minister who can inspire all ages in a variety of settings to enjoy music, learn music, play music, and celebrate our faith through music as we praise and worship our God. We seek a minister who appreciates Tabernacle's rich tradition of excellence in music and embraces the use of choirs, congregational singing, praise teams, praise bands, orchestras, soloist, and special services planned and dedicated to the worship and glory of our Heavenly Father. We pray God's guidance and leadership for a minister who knows his calling, has the training and professional skills, feels a special bond with our staff and laity, and embraces a vision for service and ministry thru music and worship at Tabernacle Baptist Church

Church Profile

Tabernacle Baptist Church is a multi-generational, legacy congregation seeking to gather, grow and grow as a faith family in order to be transformed by Christ and to see transformation for Christ from our neighborhoods to the nations. Committed to unified worship, authentic fellowship, intentional discipleship, and dynamic outreach, the congregation has traditionally been a leader in community ministry. The church boasts a robust and established music ministry that includes diverse instrumental and choral ensembles for all ages. The incoming candidate is well-positioned to grow an already vibrant ministry area with strong staff collaboration, capable lay leadership, plentiful resources, and worship space ready to be enhanced with the candidate's fresh vision.

Community Profile

Tabernacle Baptist Church is located in the quickly developing West Georgia region of greater Atlanta. The community is economically anchored by several international businesses, exemplary educational institutions, and an outstanding local hospital system. Full of southern charm and hospitality, historic Adamson Square in downtown Carrollton features premium locally-owned restaurants, diverse shops, and cultural venues that bring life to the community. Carrollton offers several options for outdoor recreation within minutes of the town center including an 18-mile-long paved walking and bicycling trail that loops around the city. Families also enjoy the city's parks and recreation department and local arts programs for children.